

Krzysztof Grzegorzcyk – PhD student at the Chair of Commercial and Company Law of the Faculty of Law and Administration of the University of Warsaw (in the framework of the Doctoral School of Social Sciences of the University of Warsaw), LL.M. student at the University of Heidelberg, graduated in law and art history at the Jagiellonian University. Member and Chairman of the Board (2018/19 term) of the Scientific Association Collegium Invisibile. Scholarship holder of, among others, the DAAD and the Scholarship Foundation of the Republic of Austria. His research interests include civil law (especially inheritance law), commercial and company law, cultural assets' law, comparative law, history of late medieval and early modern art (especially 18th century).